NEW PROJECTS

RLG site management team preps Jeep for the 2018 Wrangler

Fiat Chrysler Toledo Assembly Complex
- The GEM and RLI site management team is preparing the Jeep body shop to manufacture the 2018 Wrangler.

GEM millwrights, pipefitters, electricians, ironworkers and operators are retrofitting the Jeep body shop with new tools and equipment. RLI is performing concrete work.

The shutdown started April 7 and will last for 8 weeks.

Leading the team:
Brian Mears, site manager

Dana Benner, Jeremy Johnson, Charlie Koronayi, Matt Werner, Bret Hilbert

and Keith Belair, project managers
Pat Butterfield and Don Allen, superintendents

Jacob Butler, Adam Schumacher, Mike Ebert and Adam Fackler, project engineers

Bob Dosch, Don Meier and Randy Allen, general foremen

RLG's Northeast Ohio office has been awarded one-year contracts to perform site maintenance at:

- FirstEnergy's Eastlake Power Plant
- Houghton International's industrial lubricants plant in Strongsville.

VP AWARDS FOR RLI

Midwest Tape and sales recognition

- ThermalClad siding
- SLR Architectural Roof System at the entries
- FP-12 Soffit panel

RLI was the design/build contractor for Midwest Tape and self-performed concrete, site work, masonry and carpentry. GEM performed structural steel, mechanical, electrical and plumbing. The project was completed last year.

Varco Pruden also honored RLI with:

- Its $2 Million Annual VP Product Sales Award for 2016.
- An award for $65 Million in Accumulative Sales since RLI became an authorized builder in 1982.

CUSTOMER FEEDBACK

Comments from D.J. Yark on our performance on the recently completed BMW offices and showroom:

"The RLI people that I worked with executed at the highest levels and provided 1st class service."

"Bryan [Cox] and Ryan [Euler] did a hell of a job. Very happy with how the building turned out. Thanks to everyone on the RLI team who had a hand in making this happen."

RLI was general contractor and self-performed sitework, concrete, masonry and carpentry. GEM performed HVAC and plumbing.
